COFFEYVILLE — Marjorie Culbertson, 73, of Coffeyville, died Sunday, June 11, 1989, at St. John's Hospital in Tulsa.

She was born on April 21, 1915, at Monmouth, to William and Lila Morrison Leaman. She was a Cherokee High School graduate, and received a bachelor of science in education from Pittsburg State University in 1940. She taught English and art for a short time.

Mrs. Culbertson lived in Kansas City, St. Louis and several other communities before moving to Coffeyville in 1961. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Coffeyville, was vice regent of Jane Dean Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and was a past president of the Daughters, of the Nile at Coffeyville. She was also a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. She had received state and national recognition for her poetry.

On Nov. 29, 1941, she married C.W. "Cub" Culbertson at Seneca, Kan. He survives.

Additional survivors include one son, Steve Culbertson of Denver; one daughter, Linda Livingston of Santa Paula, Calif.; one brother, Ron Leaman of South Coffeyville, Okla.; two sisters, Twyla Nevitt of College Station, Texas, and Barbara Mosher of Blue Mound; and four grandchildren.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church in Coffeyville. Burial will be in Restlawn Memorial Park Cemetery in Coffeyville. Friends may call after 3 p.m. today at the Edgewood Chapel, Ford-Wulf-Bruns Funeral Home in Coffeyville.
Marjorie Culbertson, 73, of Coffeyville, died Sunday, June 11, 1989, at St. John's Hospital in Tulsa.

She was born on April 21, 1915, at Monmouth, to William and Lila Morrison Leaman. She was a Cherokee High School graduate, and received a bachelor of science in education from Pittsburg State University in 1940. She taught English and art for a short time.

Mrs. Culbertson lived in Kansas City, St. Louis and several other communities before moving to Coffeyville in 1961. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Coffeyville, was vice regent of Jane Dean Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and was a past president of the Daughters of the Nile at Coffeyville. She was also a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. She had received state and national recognition for her poetry.

On Nov. 29, 1941, she married C.W. "Cub" Culbertson at Seneca, Kan. He survives.

Additional survivors include one son, Steve Culbertson of Denver; one daughter, Linda Livingston of Santa Paula, Calif.; one brother, Ron Leaman of South Coffeyville, Okla.; two sisters, Twyla Nevitt of College Station, Texas, and Barbara Mosher of Blue Mound, and four grandchildren.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church in Coffeyville. Burial will be in Restlawn Memorial Park Cemetery in Coffeyville. Friends may call after 3 p.m. today at the Edgewood Chapel, Ford-Wulf-Bruns Funeral Home in Coffeyville.