Glenn Max Cool, 61, of Liberty, Mo., formerly of Kansas City, Mo., died 11 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, 1995, at his home after a long illness.

He was born Jan. 1, 1934, at Cherokee County to Clarence L. and Edna L. McFall Cool. He attended schools at Columbus and graduated from Columbus High School in 1952. He received a degree in business administration from Pittsburg State University in 1958.

He was a claims adjuster for Lynn Insurance Group and held customer service positions with several manufacturing firms from 1958 to 1968. From 1968 to 1973, he was a sales associate with Eugene D. Brown Realtors. From 1973 to 1977, he was an agent for the Missouri Department of Revenue. He was again employed in real estate sales until 1980, when he became an agent with Farmers Insurance Group. He also maintained his own Farmers Agency until 1992, when he moved to Northeast Oklahoma to farm. He returned to the Kansas City area in November of 1994.

He married Donna Sue Black of Kansas City in 1964. They were later divorced.

He was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity at PSU and St. Mary's Episcopal Church at Kansas City, where he served as an acolyte. He was also a former member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Kansas City, Mo., where he was a member of the vestry and on the school board of St. Paul's Episcopal Day School.

In the mid 1970s, he was appointed a member of the Missouri Arts Council and later a member of the Historic Kansas City foundation.

Survivors include two daughters, Sarah Scott Cool of the Dominican Republic and Gretchen Black Cool Weible of Columbus, Ohio; one granddaughter; one brother, Jack L. Cool of Shawnee; four sisters, Betty Crocker of rural Chetopa, Alveen Darnell of Miami, Okla., Roseanne Booker of Decatur, Ill., and Evelyn Banzet of Wichita; eight nieces and nephews; and great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Teddy Cool, and one nephew.

Services will be 1 p.m. Wednesday at Murdock Funeral Home at Columbus. Burial will be at Greenlawn Cemetery, southwest of Columbus. There will also be a service at 5:30 p.m. Thursday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church at Kansas City, Mo.
Mr. Cool was born January 1, 1934, in Cherokee County, KS, near Columbus, KS, where he attended school, graduating from Columbus High School in 1952. He received a degree in Business Administration from Pittsburg State University in 1958. After graduation from Pittsburg State University he lived in Kansas City, MO, until 1992, employed at Lynn Insurance Group as a claims adjustor from 1958-68; customer service positions with several manufacturing firms, from 1968-73; a sales associate with Eugene D. Brown Realtors from 1973-77; an agent for Missouri Dept. of Revenue; and then again was an agent with Farmers Insurance Group until 1980. He maintained his own Farmers Agency until 1992 when he moved to northeast, OK, to farm. He returned to the Kansas City area in November of 1994. His marriage in 1964 to Donna Sue Black ended 25 years later in divorce. His memberships include: Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, Pittsburg State University; St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, serving as an Acolyte; former member of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church of K.C. where he was a member of the Vestry and on the school board of the church's day school. In the mid 1970's he was appointed a member of the Missouri Arts Concil [sic] and later was a member of the Historic Kansas City Foundation. His interests included the Lyric Theater Guild, Community Theater, line dancing and country music as well as water color painting, sketching, pottery, and gardening. Survivors include two daughters, Sarah Scott Cool, Dominican Republic, Gretchen Black Cool Weible, Columbus, OH; one granddaughter, Alexandria Gabrielle Phillips; one brother, Jack L. Cool, Shawnee, KS; four sisters, Betty Crocker, rural Chetopa, KS, Alveen Darnell Miami, OK, Roseanne Booker, Decatur, IL, Evelyn Banzet, Wichita, KS; and eight nieces and nephews; great nieces and great nephews.
O\nGlenn Max Cool
Glenn Max Cool, 81, Liberty, Mo., formerly of Kansas City, Mo., died Saturday, October 28, 1995, at his home, after a long illness. Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Wednesday in the Murdock Funeral Home, Columbus, K.S., burial in Greenlawn Cemetery, southwest of Columbus. Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Thursday in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Mo. Memorials may be considered to St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Mo., or to the Kansas City AIDS Research Consortium, 400 Pennsylvania, Suite 230, Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. Cool was born January 1, 1914, in Cherokee County, K.S., near Columbus, K.S., where he attended school, graduating from Columbus High School in 1932. He received a degree in Business Administration from Pittsburg State University in 1935. After graduation from Pittsburg State University he lived in Kansas City, Mo., until 1992, employed by the Lynn Insurance Group as a claims adjustor from 1956-65; customer service positions with several manufacturing firms, from 1967-72; a sales associate with Eugene D. Brown Realtors from 1973-77; an agent for Missouri Dept. of Revenue, and then again was an agent with Farmers Insurance Group until 1980. He maintained his own Agency until 1992 when he moved to northeast, OK, to farm. He returned to the Kansas City area in November of 1994. His marriage in 1964 to Donnie Sue Black ended 25 years later in divorce. His memberships include: Phil Sigma Kappa fraternity, Pittsburg State University; St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, serving as an acolyte; former member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of K.C. where he was a member of the Vestry and on the school board of the church's day school. In the mid-70's he was appointed a member of the Missouri Arts Council and later was a member of the Historic Kansas City Foundation. His interests included the Lyric Theater Guild, Community Theater, line dancing and country music as well as watercolor painting, sketching, pottery, and gardening. Survivors include two daughters, Sarah Scott Cool of the Dominican Republic, Gretchen Black Cool Weible of Columbus, Ohio; one granddaughter, Alexandria Gabrielle Phillips; one brother, Jack L. Cool, Shawnee, KS; four sisters, Betty Crocker, rural Chetopa, KS, Alveen Darnell Miami, OK, Roseanne Booker of Decatur, Ill., Evelyn Banzet of Wichita; eight nieces and nephews; and great nieces and nephews.

He was a claims adjustor for Lynn Insurance Group and held customer service positions with several manufacturing firms from 1958 to 1968. From 1968 to 1973, he was a sales associate with Eugene D. Brown Realtors. From 1973 to 1977, he was an agent for the Missouri Department of Revenue. He was again employed in real estate sales until 1980, when he became an agent with Farmers Insurance Group. He also maintained his own Agency until 1992, when he moved to northeast Oklahoma to farm. He returned to the Kansas City area in November of 1994.

He married Donna Sue Black of Kansas City in 1964. They were later divorced.

He was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity at PSU and St. Mary's Episcopal Church at Kansas City, Kan. Additional information and services to be announced by Bremner Mortuary at Pittsburg.

Jerry Bright
Mindenmines, Mo. — Jerry Bright, 45, of Mindenmines, Mo., died 8:30 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 29, 1995, at KU Medical Center at Kansas City, Kan. Additional information and services to be announced by Bremner Mortuary at Pittsburg.

Glenn Max Cool
Liberty, Mo. — Glenn Max Cool, 81, of Liberty, Mo., formerly of Kansas City, Mo., died 11 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, 1995, at his home after a long illness.

He was born Jan. 1, 1914, in Cherokee County to Clarence L. and Edna L. McFall Cool. He attended schools at Columbus and graduated from Columbus High School in 1932. He received a degree in business administration from Pittsburg State University in 1935.

In the mid 1970's, he was appointed a member of the Missouri Arts Council and later a member of the Historic Kansas City foundation.

Survivors include two daughters, Sarah Scott Cool of the Dominican Republic, Gretchen Black Cool Weible of Columbus, Ohio; one granddaughter; one brother, Jack L. Cool of Shawnee; four sisters, Betty Crocker of rural Chetopa, Alveen Darnell of Miami, OK., Roseanne Booker of Decatur, Ill., and Evelyn Banzet of Wichita; eight nieces and nephews; and great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Teddy Cool, and one nephew.

Services will be 1 p.m. Wednesday at Murdock Funeral Home at Columbus. Burial will be at Greenlawn Cemetery, southwest of Columbus. There will also be a service at 5:30 p.m. Thursday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church at Kansas City, Mo.