Dean Clark Coulter

PRESTON - Dean Clark Coulter, 37, of Preston, formerly of Pittsburg, died Wednesday, July 2, 2003, at his home.

He was born Oct. 9, 1965, at Kansas City, Kan., to Gordon and Lenni (Mardis) Coulter.

He had been a resident of Pratt County off and on for numerous years.

He earned a bachelor of liberal arts degree from Pittsburg State University.

He was a supervisor for Flint Hills Resources at El Dorado. He had worked for the Cerebral Palsy Foundation in Wichita, was a former supervisor with Goodwill Industries, worked for Elm Acres Youth and Family Services, Inc., the Crisis Resource Center of Southeast Kansas (previously known as Safehouse), and was an estimator and supervisor for Tri-State Building and Supply Co. in Pittsburg for five years.

Mr. Coulter worked with youth and people with disabilities for more than nine years.

He served on the Habitat for Humanity committee in Pittsburg and was active in the First United Methodist Church choir in Pittsburg for many years.

Survivors include his parents, of Preston; his wife, Michelle (Jemison) Coulter, of Pittsburg; one son, Caleb Preston Coulter, of Pittsburg; one daughter, Devon Elaine Coulter, of Pittsburg; one sister, Laura Coulter, of Lawrence; two nephews and one niece.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at Larrison Mortuary, Pratt. Friends may sign the register book from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until service time Saturday at the mortuary. Arrangements are under the direction of Larrison Mortuary, Pratt.
PRESTON - Dean Clark Coulter, 37, died July 2, 2003, at his home in Preston.

Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Larrison Mortuary. Friends may sign the register book from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. until service time Saturday at the mortuary.

He was born Oct. 9, 1965, in Kansas City, Kan., the son of Gordon and Lenni Mardis Coulter. A Pratt County resident for several years, he was supervisor for Flint Hills Resources in El Dorado. He earned a Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree from Pittsburg State University.

He married Michelle Jemison Coulter. She survives, of Pittsburg.

Other survivors include: a son, Caleb Preston Coulter, Pittsburg; a daughter, Devon Elaine Coulter, Pittsburg; parents, of Preston; a sister, Laura Coulter, Lawrence; and a nephew, Eliot McNall, Lawrence.

Memorials may be sent to Pratt County Humane Society or Pratt Public Library, both in care of the mortuary.
Dean Clark Coulter

PRESTON — Dean Clark Coulter, 37, of Preston, formerly of Pittsburg, died Wednesday, July 2, 2003, at his home.

He was born Oct. 9, 1965, at Kansas City, Kan., to Gordon and Lenni (Mardis) Coulter.

He had been a resident of Pratt County off and on for numerous years.

He earned a bachelor of liberal arts degree from Pittsburg State University.

He was a supervisor for Flint Hills Resources at El Dorado. He had worked for the Cerebral Palsy Foundation in Wichita, was a former supervisor with Goodwill Industries, worked for Elm Acres Youth and Family Services, Inc., the Crisis Resource Center of Southeast Kansas (previously known as Safehouse), and was an estimator and supervisor for Tri-State Building and Supply Co. in Pittsburg for five years.

Mr. Coulter worked with youth and people with disabilities for more than nine years.

He served on the Habitat for Humanity committee in Pittsburg and was active in the First United Methodist Church choir in Pittsburg for many years.

Survivors include his parents, of Preston; his wife, Michelle (Jemison) Coulter, of Pittsburg; one son, Caleb Preston Coulter, of Pittsburg; one daughter, Devon Elaine Coulter, of Pittsburg; one sister, Laura Coulter, of Lawrence; two nephews and one niece.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at Larrison Mortuary, Pratt. Friends may sign the register book from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until service time Saturday at the mortuary.

Arrangements are under the direction of Larrison Mortuary, Pratt.