Nathan Craig Doughty

ST. LOUIS, Mo. - Nathan Craig Doughty, 47, of St. Louis, Mo., died Wednesday, May 18, 2005.

He was born Nov. 9, 1957 at Havre de Grace, Md, to Gerald N. and Maryalta Robinson Doughty.

He was a 1977 graduate of Humboldt High School and attended college at K-State and Northwestern Illinois University. He also attended Pittsburg State University where he received a bachelor's degree in electronic engineering.

He also served in the National Guard in Kansas and Illinois.

He is survived by four siblings: Neil Doughty of Pittsburg; Rachael Doughty of Birmingham, Ala.; Leah Doughty Griffies of Topeka; and Marta Doughty of Mayetta; one niece; and three nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A celebration of life will be held by the family at Mayetta on Monday, May 30, with private burial to follow.

© 2005, The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/052605/obi_20050526007.shtml
Nathan Craig Doughty

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Nathan Craig Doughty, 47, of St. Louis, Mo., died Wednesday, May 18, 2005.

He was born Nov. 9, 1957 at Havre de Grace, Md., to Gerald N. and Maryalta Robinson Doughty.

He was a 1977 graduate of Humboldt High School and attended college at K-State and Northwestern Illinois University. He also attended Pittsburgh State University where he received a bachelor’s degree in electronic engineering.

He also served in the National Guard in Kansas and Illinois.

He is survived by four siblings: Neil Doughty of Pittsburgh; Rachael Doughty of Birmingham, Ala.; Leah Doughty Griffies of Topeka; and Marta Doughty of Mayetta; one niece; and three nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A celebration of life will be held by the family at Mayetta on Monday, May 30, with private burial to follow.