Bernard ‘Bernie’ Dale Eddleman

He was born on May 27, 1927 in Broadus (Powder River County), Mont., to James Walter and Zola Holcomb Eddleman.

He served as a Gunner's Mate in the Pacific Theatre during World War II.

After working for McDonnell/Douglas Aircraft in experimental development, he attended Pittsburg State University where he received his BS and MS degree in vocational education.

He taught in Marysville and later at the Osawatomie State Hospital's George York School where he retired in 1990 after teaching for 20 years.

He was a member of the Fontana Christian Church. He was active in Christian Churches all of his adult life where he served as Deacon, Elder, and Sunday school teacher. He served several years on the Board of Directors of Campus Christian in Pittsburg.

He was a life member of NRA and a founder member of Whittington Center in Raton, N.M. He taught hunter safety classes for several years.

He married Dorothy Chism in Hotckiss, Colo., on Dec. 31, 1948. They recently celebrated 56 years of marriage.

Additional survivors include three daughters, Jan Evans and Joyce Jones of Gardner, and Kathy Randels of Wichita; five grandchildren; four brothers, Herman in Colorado, Troy in New Mexico, Calvin in Washington, and Lee in Oregon; and six great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Robert Dale Eddleman; one brother, Curtis Eddleman; and one sister, Charlotte Acuff.

Memorial services will be at 1 a.m. Saturday at Fontana Christian Church. There will be a visitation following the service. Private family inurnment will be at Elk City Cemetery at a later date.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Bruce Funeral Home of Gardner.

© 2005, The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/051805/obi_20050518031.shtml
Bernard 'Bernie' Dale Eddleman

He was born on May 27, 1927 in Broadus (Powder River County), Mont., to James Walter and Zola Holcomb Eddleman.

He served as a Gunner's Mate in the Pacific Theatre during World War II.

After working for McDonnell/Douglas Aircraft in experimental development, he attended Pittsburg State University where he received his BS and MS degree in vocational education.

He taught in Marysville and later at the Osawatomie State Hospital's George York School where he retired in 1990 after teaching for 20 years.

He was a member of the Fontana Christian Church. He was active in Christian Churches all of his adult life where he served as Deacon, Elder, and Sunday school teacher. He served several years on the Board of Directors of Campus Christian in Pittsburg.

He was a life member of NRA and a founder member of Whittington Center in Raton, N.M. He taught hunter safety classes for several years.

He married Dorothy Chism in Hotckiss, Colo., on Dec. 31, 1948. They recently celebrated 56 years of marriage.

Additional survivors include three daughters, Jan Evans and Joyce Jones of Gardner, and Kathy Randels of Wichita; five grandchildren; four brothers, Herman in Colorado, Troy in New Mexico, Calvin in Washington, and Lee in Oregon; and six great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Robert Dale Eddleman; one brother, Curtis Eddleman; and one sister, Charlotte Acuff.

Memorial services will be at 1 a.m. Saturday at Fontana Christian Church. There will be a visitation following the service. Private family inurnment will be at Elk City Cemetery at a later date.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Bruce Funeral Home of Gardner.