
She was born Dec. 15, 1976, in Bartlesville, Okla. to Robyn and Alan Eastman.

She grew up in Bartlesville, and became known for her musical talent; she played violin in the Strolling Strings and the orchestra, sang soprano in both the Select Choir and the Show Choir, and had several roles in musical theatre both in high school and community productions. She earned an AA degree at Ricks College in Rexburg, Ind., then transferred to Pittsburg State University. She was awarded a BA cum laude in education in 1999.

She married Hyriam James Fleming on June 11, 1999, in the St. Louis LDS Temple. He survives of the home.

They moved to Sublette where Hyriam taught chemistry and physics and Giselle earned her MA in Special Education from Emporia State University magna cum laude. They then moved to Eudora so Hyriam could attend pharmacy school at the University of Kansas.

She was teaching Special Education at West Elementary School in Eudora. In addition, she was the Primary chorister in the Wakarusa Valley Ward of the LDS Church.

Additional survivors include two daughters, Livia and McKenna of the home; her parents, Robyn Eastman of Bartlesville, and Alan Eastman and Vickie of Salt Lake City, Utah; one sister, Krista Beyeler of Kansas City; and three brothers, Daniel and Evan of Bartlesville, and Jonathan, currently serving as a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Riga, Latvia.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m., at the LDS Chapel at 3655 W. 10th St. in Lawrence. Visitors may greet the family Tuesday from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Warren-McElwain Eudora Chapel, 10th Street east of Church Street in Eudora, or at the LDS chapel in Lawrence from 11:30 to 12:30 p.m. Wednesday before the service. There will also be a memorial service in Bartlesville on Saturday at 1 p.m. at the LDS Chapel, 1500 Swan Drive.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Warren-McElwain Mortuary of Eudora.

©Copyright 2004 The Morning Sun
http://www.morningsun.net/stories/110804/obi_20041108023.shtml
Giselle Eastman Fleming

She was born Dec. 15, 1976, in Bartlesville, Okla., to Robyn and Alan Eastman. She grew up in Bartlesville, and became known for her musical talent; she played violin in the Strolling Strings and the orchestra, sang soprano in both the Select Choir and the Show Choir, and had several roles in musical theatre both in high school and community productions. She earned an AA degree at Ricks College in Rexburg, Ind., then transferred to Pittsburg State University. She was awarded a BA cum laude in education in 1999.

She married Hyriam James Fleming on June 11, 1999, in the St. Louis LDS Temple. He survives of the home.

They moved to Sublette where Hyriam taught chemistry and physics and Giselle earned her MA in Special Education from Emporia State University magna cum laude. They then moved to Eudora so Hyriam could attend pharmacy school at the University of Kansas.

She was teaching Special Education at West Elementary School in Eudora. In addition, she was the Primary chorister in the Wakarusa Valley Ward of the LDS Church.

Additional survivors include two daughters, Livia and McKenna of the home; her parents, Robyn Eastman of Bartlesville, and Alan Eastman and Vickie of Salt Lake City, Utah; one sister, Krista Beyeler of Kansas City; and three brothers, Daniel and Evan of Bartlesville, and Jonathan, currently serving as a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Riga, Latvia.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m., at the LDS Chapel at 3655 W. 10th St. in Lawrence. Visitors may greet the family Tuesday from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Warren-McElwain Eudora Chapel, 10th Street east of Church Street in Eudora, or at the LDS chapel in Lawrence from 11:30 to 12:30 p.m. Wednesday before the service. There will also be a memorial service in Bartlesville on Saturday at 1 p.m. at the LDS Chapel, 1500 Swan Drive.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Warren-McElwain Mortuary of Eudora.