Obituaries
Story last updated at 1:17 a.m. Thursday, December 11, 2003

David L. Goodman

David L. Goodman, 61, of Stafford [sic] County, Va., died Monday, Dec. 8, 2003, at Johns Hopkins Medical Center.

Mr. Goodman was raised at Arma, where he graduated from high school in 1960. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Pittsburg State University and a master of business administration degree from Oklahoma City University.

He retired as a major in the U.S. Army after serving 25 years. He was awarded the Combat Infantry Badge, the Bronze Star, the Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross, Army commendations and meritorious service medals.

He was a program manager for CACI.

Mr. Goodman was president of the National Boating Federation, Rear Commodore of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Clubs Association, Past Commodore of the Potomac River Yacht Clubs Association, past Commodore of the Aqua Harbour Yacht Club, past president of the local chapter of the International Order of the Blue Gavel, a member of the Chesapeake Commodore's Club, a lifetime member of the American Legion of Arma; and a member of the Occoquan VFW.

Survivors include his wife, Judy Lewis Goodman; three daughters, Krista Goodman of Locust Grove, Va., and Erin Hughes and Allison Blankenship, both of Spotsylvania, Va.; one sister, Judy Kopriva of Excelsior Springs, Mo.; three grandchildren; one uncle; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral mass will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, at St. William of York Catholic Church, Stafford, with interment at Arlington National Cemetery at a later date. The family will receive friends from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday at Mullins & Thompson Funeral Service, Stafford Chapel. A rosary service will begin at 7:30 p.m. with a wake service following at 8 p.m. Arrangements are under the direction of Mullins & Thompson Funeral Service.

©Copyright 2003 The Morning Sun

http://www.morningsun.net/stories/121103/obi_20031211020.shtml
Obituaries

David L. Goodman

David L. Goodman, 61, of Stafford County, Va., died Monday, Dec. 8, 2003, at Johns Hopkins Medical Center.

Mr. Goodman was raised at Arma, where he graduated from high school in 1960. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Pittsburg State University and a master of business administration degree from Oklahoma City University.

He retired as a major in the U.S. Army after serving 25 years. He was awarded the Combat Infantry Badge, the Bronze Star, the Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross, Army commendations and meritorious service medals.

He was a program manager for CACI.

Mr. Goodman was president of the National Boating Federation, Rear Commodore of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Clubs Association, Past Commodore of the Potomac River Yacht Clubs Association, past Commodore of the Aquia Harbour Yacht Club, past president of the local chapter of the International Order of the Blue Gavel, a member of the Chesapeake Commodore's Club, a lifetime member of the American Legion of Arma; and a member of the Occoquan VFW.

Survivors include his wife, Judy Lewis Goodman; three daughters, Krista Goodman of Locust Grove, Va., and Erin Hughes and Allison Blankenship, both of Spotsylvania, Va.; one sister, Judy Kopriva of Excelsior Springs, Mo.; three grandchildren; one uncle; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral mass will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, at St. William of York Catholic Church, Stafford, with interment at Arlington National Cemetery at a later date. The family will receive friends from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday at Mullins & Thompson Funeral Service, Stafford Chapel. A rosary service will begin at 7:30 p.m. with a wake service following at 8 p.m. Arrangements are under the direction of Mullins & Thompson Funeral Service.