Robert Lee Hays

LAMAR, Mo. - Robert Lee Hays, 68, of Lamar, Mo., died Tuesday, Jan. 18, 2005.

He was born Feb. 8, 1936 in Wetumka, Okla., to Amos and Mar (Moore) Hays.

He had retired from Liberal High School where he had been a football and track coach for 25 years. He had also coached in Brush, Colo., for 10 years previous. He retired from Liberal in 2001.

He was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Frontenac.

He married Patricia Gertge on June 8, 1963 in Brush. She survives.

Additional survivors include one daughter, Melissa Wiederkehr of Fort Smith, Ark.; two sons, Monte Hays of Chicago, and Thomas Hays of Greenville, Texas; six grandchildren; two brothers, Paul Hays of Florida, and Rex Hall of Meeker, Okla.; and one sister, Mona Boswell of Amarillo, Texas.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Frontenac. Burial will be at the Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Konantz-Warden Funeral Home in Lamar.
Robert Lee Hays

LAMAR, Mo. — Robert Lee Hays, 68, of Lamar, Mo., died Tuesday, Jan. 18, 2005.

He was born Feb. 8, 1936 in Wetumka, Okla., to Amos and Mar (Moore) Hays.

He had retired from Liberal High School where he had been a football and track coach for 25 years. He had also coached in Brush, Colo., for 10 years previous. He retired from Liberal in 2001.

He was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Frontenac.

He married Patricia Gertge on June 8, 1963 in Brush. She survives.

Additional survivors include one daughter, Melissa Wiederkehr of Fort Smith, Ark.; two sons, Monte Hays of Chicago, and Thomas Hays of Greenville, Texas; six grandchildren; two brothers, Paul Hays of Florida, and Rex Hall of Meeker, Okla.; and one sister, Mona Boswell of Amarillo, Texas.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Frontenac. Burial will be at the Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Konantz-Warden Funeral Home in Lamar.