Billie "Jo" Hurlbut

Billie "Jo" Hurlbut, 66, of Pittsburg, died at 10:45 p.m. Sunday, April 18, 2004, at her home, following a lengthy illness.

She was born July 23, 1937, at Gideon, Mo., to Marvin Leslie and Gladys S. Lowery Brooks. She graduated from Joplin High School.

She married Don Hurlbut at Joplin on Feb. 11, 1960. He survives of the home.

Mrs. Hurlbut was the coordinator for the preschool at the Pittsburg Family YMCA for 23 years. She also worked as a supervisor and instructor at the Tot Lot.

Additional survivors include two daughters, Lisa J. Chiappetti and Tracy Carrington, both of Pittsburg; one sister, Ginger Hurlbert of Pittsburg; and four grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Phillip Brooks.

Graveside services will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Garden of Memories Cemetery with Chaplain Rod Keith officiating. Burial will follow. Friends are requested to meet at Brenner Mortuary to go in procession to the cemetery at 10:15 a.m. Thursday. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the chapel, where friends also may call after 9 a.m. Wednesday.

[photograph]
Hurlbut

Arrangements are under the direction of Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth St.

©Copyright 2004 The Morning Sun
http://www.morningsun.net/stories/042004/obi_20040420025.shtml
Billie ‘Jo’ Hurlbut

Billie “Jo” Hurlbut, 66, of Pittsburg, died at 10:45 p.m. Sunday, April 18, 2004, at her home, following a lengthy illness.

She was born July 23, 1937, at Gideon, Mo., to Marvin Leslie and Gladys S. Lowery Brooks. She graduated from Joplin High School.

She married Don Hurlbut at Joplin on Feb. 11, 1960. He survives of the home.

Mrs. Hurlbut was the coordinator for the preschool at the Pittsburg Family YMCA for 23 years. She also worked as a supervisor and instructor at the Tot Lot.

Additional survivors include two daughters, Lisa J. Chiappetti and Tracy Carrington, both of Pittsburg; one sister, Ginger Hurlbert of Pittsburg; and four grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Phillip Brooks.

Graveside services will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Garden of Memories Cemetery with Chaplain Rod Keith officiating. Burial will follow. Friends are requested to meet at Brenner Mortuary to go in procession to the cemetery at 10:15 a.m. Thursday. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the chapel, where friends also may call after 9 a.m. Wednesday.

Arrangements are under the direction of Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth St.