Dorothy Dale Jackson

Dorothy Dale Jackson, 97, of Columbus, died July 8, 2004 at St. John's Maude Norton Hospital in Columbus.

Mrs. Jackson was born Jan. 1, 1907 in Parker to Damue and Carrie Steele Tyler.

She married Elvis Owen Jackson on April 20, 1930. Her husband preceded her in death on July 4, 1972.

Mrs. Jackson attended grade school and high school in Columbus and graduated from Kansas State Teachers College.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and was actively involved in the United Methodist Women Club, Hobkins Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, John Corbly Descendants Association of Penn., American Legion Auxiliary, Home Culture Club and the Columbus Museum [sic].

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Park Cemetery with the Rev. Don Flanner officiating. Friends and loved ones will meet at 1 p.m. at Murdock Funeral Home and will proceed to Park Cemetery for the service.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Murdock Funeral Home of Columbus.

© Copyright, 2004 The Morning Sun
http://www.morningsun.net/stories/070904/obi_20040709025.shtml
Obituaries

Dorothy Dale Jackson

Dorothy Dale Jackson, 97, of Columbus, died July 8, 2004 at St. John's Maude Norton Hospital in Columbus.

Mrs. Jackson was born Jan. 1, 1907 in Parker to Damue and Carrie Steele Tyler.

She married Elvis Owen Jackson on April 20, 1930. Her husband preceded her in death on July 4, 1972.

Mrs. Jackson attended grade school and high school in Columbus and graduated from Kansas State Teachers College.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and was actively involved in the United Methodist Women Club, Hobkins Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, John Corbly Descendants Association of Penn., American Legion Auxiliary, Home Culture Club and the Columbus Musuem.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Park Cemetery with the Rev. Don Flanner officiating. Friends and loved ones will meet at 1 p.m. at Murdock Funeral Home and will proceed to Park Cemetery for the service.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Murdock Funeral Home of Columbus.