A. Charline Sessi Kaehny

She was born Dec. 11, 1908 in Pittsburg to August H. and Carolina S. Gatti Sessi. She attended Pittsburg schools and was educated at Kansas State Teachers College, later studying Federal and State income Tax through the University of Illinois in Chicago and Springfield. After relocating to Chicago, she began her long business association with the State of Illinois in 1940 and had an extensive career with the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois until her retirement.

She was highly regarded by her professional associates and recognized as an expert in all fields of Federal and State Tax. Throughout her lifework, she was widely known and appeared on many public television and radio information shows such as 'Sunday in Chicago', NBC’s Today in Chicago and conducted professional seminars on Federal and State Tax throughout Illinois. She held various positions throughout her successful business career, and at one time, served as director of Revenue's Income Tax Information Center in Chicago, a position that earned her countless letters of commendation.

She was of Episcopal faith.

Survivors include a sister, Maria Macari of Houston; two nieces; one great-nephew; and a great-niece; and a special friend.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; and a brother-in-law.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the Highland Park Cemetery in Pittsburg with Pastor Colin Ward officiating. Friends and family are requested to meet at the cemetery. Friends may call the funeral home after 3 p.m. today.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, 522 S. Broadway.
A. Charline Sessi Kaehny

A. Charline Sessi Kaehny, 96, of Pittsburg, died at 9:40 a.m. Monday, May 16, 2005, at the Medicalodge North Nursing Home in Pittsburg after a long battle with Alzheimer’s.

She was born Dec. 11, 1908 in Pittsburg to August H. and Carolina S. Gatti Sessi. She attended Pittsburg schools and was educated at Kansas State Teachers College, later studying Federal and State Income Tax through the University of Illinois in Chicago and Springfield. After relocating to Chicago, she began her long business association with the State of Illinois in 1940 and had an extensive career with the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois until her retirement.

She was highly regarded by her professional associates and recognized as an expert in all fields of Federal and State Tax. Throughout her lifework, she was widely known and appeared on many public television and radio information shows such as ‘Sunday in Chicago’, NBC’s ‘Today in Chicago’ and conducted professional seminars on Federal and State Tax throughout Illinois. She held various positions throughout her successful business career, and at one time, served as director of Revenue’s Income Tax Information Center in Chicago, a position that earned her countless letters of commendation.

She was of Episcopal faith.

Survivors include a sister, Maria Macari of Houston; two nieces; one great-nephew; and a great-niece; and a special friend.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; and a brother-in-law.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the Highland Park Cemetery in Pittsburg with Pastor Colin Ward officiating. Friends and family are requested to meet at the cemetery. Friends may call the funeral home after 3 p.m. today.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, 522 S. Broadway.