Sharon Sue Lake

OVERLAND PARK - Sharon Sue Lake, 62, of Overland Park, died Saturday, Dec. 25, 2004, at her home after a lengthy illness.

She was born Jan. 15, 1942, in Pittsburg to Roger L. Sr., and Imogene (Plumlee) Masquelier. She grew up in Pittsburg, Van Nuys, Calif., and Yates Center where she graduated from Yates Center High School in 1960. She attended Allen County Community College in Iola and Pittsburg State University.

In 1971 she received a degree in secondary English education and library science from PSU. She taught English and was a librarian, play director, pep club sponsor and yearbook sponsor for two years at Republic High School in Republic. She taught literature and composition 21 years at Marmaton Valley High School in Moran and was librarian much of that time, until she retired in 1994. She moved to Overbrook in 1999.

Survivors include her mother and her daughter Kelly McPhail of the home.

She was preceded in death by her father and two brothers, Roger L. "Bud" Masquelier, Jr., and Gary Guy Masquelier.

A visitation and memorial service is planned for 2 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 30, 2004 at the Greenwood-Roberts Funeral Home in Overbrook, followed by graveside service at Overbrook Cemetery and a reception at the Overbrook Methodist Church.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Greenwood-Roberts Funeral Home in Overbrook.
