Karen Ann Mausolf

She was born Nov. 21, 1943, in Wichita to Charles and Bettie VanLaningham.

She became a teacher at Pittsburg State University after achieving her degree from there. After taking time off to be a homemaker, she then pursued a career as a financial planner with Lutheran Brotherhood. After retirement, she stayed very active in her community and church, volunteering and serving as members in several organizations including Holy Cross Lutheran Church and the Overland Park Host Lions Club.

Survivors include her husband, Lavern Mausolf; her mother; three sons, Brian Lewis, Brent Lewis, and Brad Lewis and their father, William S. Lewis; three step-daughters, Bonnie Jo Noltensmeyer, Lana Bauer, and Debra Beachler; her sister, Susan VanLaningham; brother, Ron VanLaningham; many nieces, nephews, step-grandchildren, step great-grandchildren, and aunts and uncles.

She was preceded in death by her father and her brother, Brian VanLaningham.

Services will be at noon Sunday at the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Overland Park. Friends may call from 11 a.m. until service time. Burial will be in Johnson County Memorial Gardens.

Arrangements are under the direction of the D.W. Newcomer's Sons Johnson County Funeral Chapel of Overland Park.

©Copyright 2004 The Morning Sun

http://www.morningsun.net/stories/122404/obi_20041224018.shtml
Karen Ann Mausolf

She was born Nov. 21, 1943, in Wichita to Charles and Bettie VanLaningham.

She became a teacher at Pittsburg State University after achieving her degree from there. After taking time off to be a homemaker, she then pursued a career as a financial planner with Lutheran Brotherhood. After retirement, she stayed very active in her community and church, volunteering and serving as members in several organizations including Holy Cross Lutheran Church and the Overland Park Host Lions Club.

Survivors include her husband, Lavern Mausolf; her mother; three sons, Brian Lewis, Brent Lewis, and Brad Lewis and their father, William S. Lewis; three step-daughters, Bonnie Jo Noltensmeyer, Lana Bauer, and Debra Beachler; her sister, Susan VanLaningham; brother, Ron VanLaningham; many nieces, nephews, step-grandchildren, step-great-grandchildren, and aunts and uncles.

She was preceded in death by her father and her brother, Brian VanLaningham.

Services will be at noon Sunday at the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Overland Park. Friends may call from 11 a.m. until service time. Burial will be in Johnson County Memorial Gardens.

Arrangements are under the direction of the D.W. Newcomer's Sons Johnson County Funeral Chapel of Overland Park.