Brenda J. Staton

FORT SCOTT - Brenda J. Staton, 51, of Fort Scott, formerly of Pleasanton, died Sunday, May 2, 2004, at Mt. Carmel Regional Medical Center.

She was born June 30, 1952, at Fort Scott, to Leon and Lucy Coffel Staton. She was a 1971 graduate of Pleasanton High School. She graduated from Emporia State College in 1975.

She was a special education teacher and case manager.

She was a member of First Christian Church and the Order of the Eastern Star Hope Chapter No. 80, both of Pleasanton. She also was a member and past reigning queen of the Grand Court of Kansas Order of the Amaranth and past grand royal matron.

Survivors include her parents of Pleasanton; one brother, Eddy Staton of Pleasanton; three sisters, Marilyn Peak of Overland Park, and Reva Robinson and Debbie Ellis, both of Pleasanton; and many nieces and nephews.

Services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at First Christian Church at Pleasanton. Friends may call from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Coffel-Schneider Chapel at Pleasanton. Burial will be in Pleasanton Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Coffel-Schneider Funeral Home of Pleasanton.
Brenda J. Staton

FORT SCOTT — Brenda J. Staton, 51, of Fort Scott, formerly of Pleasanton, died Sunday, May 2, 2004, at Mt. Carmel Regional Medical Center.

She was born June 30, 1952, at Fort Scott, to Leon and Lucy Coffel Staton. She was a 1971 graduate of Pleasanton High School. She graduated from Emporia State College in 1975.

She was a special education teacher and case manager.

She was a member of First Christian Church and the Order of the Eastern Star Hope Chapter No. 80, both of Pleasanton. She also was a member and past reigning queen of the Grand Court of Kansas Order of the Amaranth and past grand royal matron.

Survivors include her parents of Pleasanton; one brother, Eddy Staton of Pleasanton; three sisters, Marilyn Peak of Overland Park, and Reva Robinson and Debbie Ellis, both of Pleasanton; and many nieces and nephews.

Services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at First Christian Church at Pleasanton. Friends may call from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Coffel-Schneider Chapel at Pleasanton. Burial will be in Pleasanton Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Coffel-Schneider Funeral Home of Pleasanton.