Edgar Van Tassel

He was born Aug. 22, 1907 on the family farm in Missouri, 10 miles southeast of Pittsburg.

He married Neva. She preceded him in death.

He obtained his bachelor's degree from Kansas State Teachers College, now Pittsburg State University, in 1930 and his master's degree in 1935. He taught school in Asbury, Mo. He also worked as a high school superintendent in Dearing and for an oil equipment company until 1939, when he joined the U.S. Department of Commerce as a meteorologist. In 1949 he was promoted to official in charge of the weather bureau station in Scottsbluff, Neb., where he remained until his retirement in 1971. He was honored with the Department of Commerce Bronze Award for superior federal service.

Following his retirement, Mr. Van Tassel remained active in weather forecasting, acting as meteorologist for KSTF-TV in Scottsbluff for several years.

A memorial service will held at 5:30 today at Drinkwine Mortuary in Littleton, Colo. Graveside services will be 1 p.m. Saturday, April 3, at the Blackjack Cemetery east of Pittsburg across the Missouri line.
