Margaret Dunton Weede

She was born Oct. 27, 1912 to Louis Henry and Nettie Hunt Dunton in Arcadia.

She had lived in Virginia Beach since 1967 but in December of 2004 moved to Kendal at Lexington in Lexington.

She was a member of the Old Donation and Eastern Shore Episcopal Churches in Virginia Beach and was a member of the Oceanus Hopkins Chapter of the D.A.R. in Pittsburg.

She married Lieutenant General Richard Garfield Weede of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Survivors include her son, Colonel Richard Dunton Weede of the U.S. Marine Corps (Ret) of Lexington; two grandsons; and two great-granddaughters.

Details regarding burial at Arlington National Cemetery are not complete.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Harrison Funeral Home in Lexington.

©Copyright 2005 The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/020405/obi_20050204022.shtml
Margaret Dunton Weede

She was born Oct. 27, 1912 to Louis Henry and Nettie Hunt Dunton in Arcadia.

She had lived in Virginia Beach since 1967 but in December of 2004 moved to Kendal at Lexington in Lexington.

She was a member of the Old Donation and Eastern Shore Episcopal Churches in Virginia Beach and was a member of the Oceanus Hopkins Chapter of the D.A.R. in Pittsburg.

She married Lieutenant General Richard Garfield Weede of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Survivors include her son, Colonel Richard Dunton Weede of the U.S. Marine Corps (Ret) of Lexington; two grandsons; and two great-granddaughters.

Details regarding burial at Arlington National Cemetery are not complete.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Harrison Funeral Home in Lexington.