Obituaries

COLUMBUS - Carl E. Wofford, 67, Columbus, died Sunday, June 12, 2005, at St. John's Regional Medical Center, Joplin.

He was born Jan. 7, 1938, in Hallowell, the son of Clair E. and Eva Elizabeth (Smith) Wofford. He was a graduate of CCCHS and Pittsburg State University. He taught English and drama classes in Osawatomie, Oxford and Baxter Springs. He also worked at King Louie Garment Factory in Baxter Springs, retiring at the age of 62.

Mr. Wofford was a member of the Oswego Methodist Church and a past member of the Chetopa Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include a sister, Thelma Thiele of Columbus; one brother, Walter Wofford of Topeka; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Murdock Funeral Home, Columbus, with the Rev. Susan Rosenbaum of the First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will follow in McKee Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.

© 2005, The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/061405/obi_20050614032.shtml
Carl E. Wofford

COLUMBUS. — Carl E. Wofford, 67, Columbus, died Sunday, June 12, 2005, at St. John’s Regional Medical Center, Joplin.

He was born Jan. 7, 1938, in Hallowell, the son of Clair E. and Eva Elizabeth (Smith) Wofford. He was a graduate of CCCHS and Pittsburg State University. He taught English and drama classes in Osawatomie, Oxford and Baxter Springs. He also worked at King Louie Garment Factory in Baxter Springs, retiring at the age of 62.

Mr. Wofford was a member of the Oswego Methodist Church and a past member of the Chetopa Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include a sister, Thelma Thiele of Columbus; one brother, Walter Wofford of Topeka; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Murdock Funeral Home, Columbus, with the Rev. Susan Rosenbaum of the First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will follow in McKee Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.